Two Designers Earn Mercedes Benz Cars in Celebrating Home's Incentive Program

Both women will be honored this January

MARSHALL, Texas (Grassroots Newswire) – Celebrating Home – a leading direct selling company that provides home décor products – has just announced that two of its Designers have earned a Mercedes Benz through its Mercedes Track Program incentive. Dawn Walz, Designer and Senior Executive with Celebrating Home, from Freeman, South Dakota, and Cheryl Marrant, Designer and National Executive with the company, from Richmond, Missouri, worked extremely hard to earn their Mercedes and they will be awarded this January.

“It is exciting to go to work with purpose and passion,” Walz said. “Celebrating Home has enhanced my life more than I could have ever imagined. It has allowed me to financially support my family, given me the flexibility to be with my children, take my husband on trips of a lifetime – and earn a Mercedes Benz! It allows me to stretch myself and reach beyond my greatest expectations. I love what this business has done for me.”

Marrant added, “It is nothing less than amazing what this business has done for this small town girl. I have gone from just wanting to earn enough money to buy groceries and stay home with my children, to building a million dollar business and earning a brand new Mercedes. Celebrating Home has not only changed my life, it has financially changed other people’s lives and made their dreams come true, too.”

Celebrating Home Designers are automatically enrolled in the Mercedes Track Program when they reach the level of Senior Rising Star Designer, which is based on personal sales, recruits and increase in team sales. When they have reached exceptional levels in these three categories, they can earn the Mercedes car, said Heather Chastain, president of Celebrating Home.

Both women will be honored for their hard work and awarded their Mercedes Benz cars in separate ceremonies this January.

“We are so proud of Dawn and Cheryl for working hard to achieve their goals,” said Chastain. “We are very pleased to award both of these ladies with a Mercedes Benz. And, we hope their fellow Designers and others will see how they, too, can work hard to achieve their dreams.”

According to Chastain, Celebrating Home’s mission is to provide opportunities to those seeking fun, recognition and financial rewards by delivering quality products, world-class service and support in a spiritually fulfilling and loving family atmosphere. Its core values include teamwork, integrity and respect.

Through home parties, Celebrating Home offers an array of home-related entertainment and decorating products that are designed to be affordable. For more information, visit www.celebratinghome.com.
