Hankamer School of Business Honors Texas Family Businesses

Celebrating Home Receives Award from Baylor University's Institute for Family Business—Honored as Texas Family Business of the Year Finalist for 2009

President Heather Chastain proudly accepted the award of finalist on behalf of the entire Celebrating Home family at the Baylor University's Institute for Family Business 20th Annual Texas Family Business of the Year Awards Banquet held November 5, 2009, in Houston. This award honors Texas family-run businesses that display values that honor the business itself, the community and the family.

As the recipient of this award, Celebrating Home is recognized as a family-run business that exemplifies dedication, hard work and an unflinching commitment to each other and to our continued business success. This award also signifies the importance placed on being responsive to the needs of our Celebrating Home employees, the communities we touch and the direct selling industry as a whole.
